ITINERARY

DAY 1 — Tuesday September 9, 2025

Located a short drive north of Montreal, Mont-Tremblant feels like a small European village. Upon arrival in the early afternoon, we meet our local guide for an introductory walking tour. Discover the magical landscapes, history and unique architecture that make Mont-Tremblant an internationally-renowned tourist town. Take the gondola to the top of Mont-Tremblant's highest peak to enjoy a spectacular panoramic view of the valley and mountain region. Then, check into our hotel, the Marriott Residence Inn, a stone's throw from a myriad of shops, restaurants, entertainment, and close to the Cabriolet, a free chairlift that comfortably carries you from one end of the village to the other. This evening there will be an included group dinner, before settling in for the night. Meals: D

DAY 2 — Wednesday September 10, 2025

After a leisurely breakfast, join our local guides for your choice of a riding - or hiking - tour of the Mont-Tremblant National Park, the first and largest protected territory in the Quebec Parks. Admire the most coveted natural attractions of the National Park including Lake Monroe, the Crooked Waterfalls, the Diablotin Waterfalls, and more! A picnic lunch is included.

Upon return, the remainder of your day is free for personal exploration. Stroll through the picturesque streets and discover a multitude of quaint boutiques, art galleries, and other attractions. Swim in the hotel pool or treat yourself to a relaxing spa experience. Enjoy afternoon tea at the Fairmont Hotel or sip your favorite beverage at a village pub. Cycling, zip lining, pedal boat and canoeing, horseback riding, golf, hiking, and an escape game are among the options. Tonight, dinner is on your own with many possible entertainment choices in the village. Perhaps visit the Casino of Mont-Tremblant, with its architecture and décor inspired by the natural surroundings or experience Tonga Lumina, an illuminated trail sensory experience in the forest. Meals: B, Picnic L
