Throughout our journey, marvel at the raw power of rushing water as we pause to witness some of the region's most captivating falls. Today's adventure includes a visit to the historic Deer Haven Park, once a vital Seneca Army Depot established at the dawn of World War II and now home to a herd of majestic white deer. Next enjoy the region's heritage as we continue to Muranda Cheese, where you'll delight in sampling their exquisite cheeses crafted right on the farm. As midday approaches, enjoy lunch on your own in the charming town of Seneca Falls. Then, immerse yourself in history at the Women's Rights National Historic Park, where the echoes of progress resonate within the walls of Wesleyan Chapel—the birthplace of the first Women's Rights Convention in the United States—led by a passionate local ranger.
